Jesus Creed & Time of Meditation

"Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God, the LORD is one;
You shall

Love the LORD your God

With all your heart,

And with all your soul,

And with all your mind,

And with all your strength."

The second is this:

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

There is no commandment greater than these.

The Apostles' Creed

Rev. Melissa Shuler

Hymnal 691

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth; I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

The word "catholic" used in the Apostles' Creed refers to the essential unity or wholeness of the Christian church throughout all places and time. The earliest historical evidence for this early statement of faith, used widely by many Christian denominations, is 390AD.*
